To whom it may concern,

We are pleased to write this letter of recommendation for Emile Issa who assisted our team at l' Association Familiale pour l'Education (AFE) for the past eight months.

We have sought at AFE to define and create the appropriate image that our association deserves, through putting together an event that can be cultural and social at the same time.

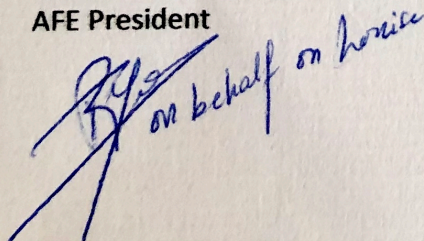

Emile, with full dedication and without hesitation, assisted us and guided us all steps of the way from brainstorming to setting the objectives, shaping the right target audience, enlisting priorities, building a concept and reassessing as much as needed for an end product that matches or even exceeds the expectations.

We can easily say that Emile is very organized, responsible and knowledgeable. He showed excellent communication skills, and demonstrated a high level of commitment, professionalism, enthusiasm and motivation throughout the project, and he was able to maintain a very positive attitude even when we were faced with serious challenges.

We would recommend Emile without any reservation and we are confident he can drive forward any project.

Sincerely,

Louise Vasdeboncoeur Aoun
AFE President
